TO PRINTERS

AN OFFICE FOR SALE.

We have an excellent Small Hand Press—plated 31x21 and bed 37x25—which we offer for sale, together with ink and roller apparatus, roller in mold, and everything necessary to outfit an office. Long Primer and Burges sufficient to print a paper the size of the Journal—25x38—also head rules, column do, bold and side sticks, leads, lead-cutter and matto-box, several stands, cases, sticks, galley, chase of almost any size, display type, imposing stone, and in short, a complete office. Also, a large amount of job type of every variety, borders of many sorts, cuts, &c., &c. These things are as good almost as if they were new, but having purchased, last year, a new office, they are dead cargo on our hands. Besides, we desire to partake of one of "Rugge's Rotary Job Presses" and dispense with one of our hand presses. This advertisement is set up in Burges, so that it can be seen how it prints. This is an specimen of the oldest and worst worn type in our office. Apply to

W. J. SLATTER, Team.

Will not some of our exchanges be kind enough to notice the above in their columns?

STATE OF TENNESSEE.

James C. Handly

vs.

A. G. Handly, Miss Margaret and R. C. Patrick.

On motion of complainant, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Clerk and Master, that the defendant A. G. Handly is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee, so the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him.

It is therefore ordered that publication be made for four successive weeks in the Home Journal, a paper published in the town of Winchester, Tennessee, requiring said non-resident to appear herein on or before the first day of our next Chancery Court, on Wednesday next the third Monday in February, and plead answer or default to said Bill, or the same will be taken for confessed and set for hearing as soon as to him.
